

The National Association of Federal Retirees
Prince George Branch 15
Liaison Advisory Committee
Annual Report

The Seniors Liaison Advisory Committee is an advisory committee to the Board of the Prince George Council of Seniors (PGCOS). The Committee is comprised of designated representatives of member organizations of the PGCOS. Representatives from non-member organizations may be added to the Committee at the discretion of the Committee Chair.

The primary objective of the Seniors Liaison Advisory Committee is to ensure effective communication between Committee members as well as between the Committee members and the PGCOS Board of Directors.

Responsibilities of the Liaison Committee

- Committee members will identify issues of common concern to seniors in order to provide written recommendations to the PGCOS Board for governmental or advocacy action.
- Committee members will look for areas of common interest or activity to develop partnerships or avoid duplication.

Committee members will be responsible for updating their member group on discussions and reports presented at the Senior Liaison Advisory Committee meetings.

Items Covered in Last Year

To name a few and it's not all inclusive, the Seniors Liaison Advisory worked on the following projects;

Poverty Reduction in Seniors;

Long term care;

Monitoring Senior Services.

We meet the first Wednesday of every month from September to June. We are now meeting in person for the first time in almost 2 years.

Thank you.
