

Quintrent Branch - 40th Anniversary

Branch President Tom Kupecz welcomed Branch members and guests to the Quintrent Branch 40th Anniversary Banquet at the Heros Landing banquet hall in Trenton

Vice President Hugh Mackay and Secretary Nancy Everett welcomed members and guests into the hall

Past Branch Presidents Bob Doan, Bob McDowell and Terry Bremner attending were recognised by Tom Kupecz

Mayor Jim Harrison , the Guest of Honour , was introduced - the Mayor presented Tom with a city citation in recognition of the Branch and its contribution to the City of Quinte West

Agnew Ward celebrated her 100th Birthday and as a cherished member of the Branch Executive she was given a gift of appreciation for her many years of branch service. While Tom was congratulating her, Agnes borrowed the microphone and regaled one of her jokes to the amusement of all present.

Before meal mingling, members took great pleasure in making old and new acquaintances

The head table was prepared and the celebration cake was cut up and displayed

Mayor Harrison and his lovely bride Jane made the rounds among the attendees and exchanged greetings and adventures

Meal conversations, hardy jokes and good natured humours were exchanged by participants

Members introducing guests and talking up potential members in joining the branch

Members and guests enjoyed their desserts over lively conversations

At the end of the banquet, while everyone was well satisfied, Mayor Jim Harrison took the floor and expanded on the many improvements and innovations the City of Quinte West has experienced in the past few years, and the future expansion of many businesses which his council is expecting.

To end the evening of celebrations, President Tom Kupecz thanked Mayor Jim Harrison and his wife Jane for coming and for the Mayor having shared his view for the future for the city. Tom also thanked every one for coming and closed the evening celebrations.
