National Association of Federal Retirees — Advocating for financial security, health and well-being during retirement since 1963.

Who we are

The National Association of Federal Retirees (Federal Retirees) is Canada's largest advocacy group representing active and retired members of the federal public service, Canadian Armed Forces, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and federally appointed judges.

With a strong tradition of advocating for its members' pensions and benefits, Federal Retirees works to support good policy that improves the lives of all Canadians in retirement. We are vigilant and always look out for your best interests as a federal pensioner.

Why should I join?

Everyone knows that there is strength in numbers. As a member of Federal Retirees, you will join more than 170,000 like-minded individuals who share the same goals as you: a pension that is secure for life; health benefits that work for you and your family; and dignity in retirement for all Canadians. We are recognized by the government as the voice of all federal retirees in Canada and sit on several official committees and advisory boards.

We also have an attractive preferred partners[†] program that provides our members with opportunities to save money on everything from insurance and cell phone service to hearing aids, funeral pre-planning and moving services.

We advocate tirelessly on behalf of our members to ensure the integrity of your pension and benefits.

What have you done for me lately?

We are proud of our body of work, which spans over half a century and has led to many important historical victories for our members. We have:

- Secured full pension indexation for all federal retirees, so your pensions keep up with the cost of living.
- Fought for the protection and security of your loved ones, obtaining continued benefits for surviving spouses.
- Challenged the $30-billion pension surplus grab from the public service, Canadian Armed Forces and RCMP superannuation accounts.
- Negotiated the creation of your dental plan, the Pensioners' Dental Services Plan (PDSP).
- Defeated Bill C-27, dangerous legislation that would put pension security at risk.
- Lobbied successfully for a federal seniors minister, ensuring you have a voice in cabinet.
- Delivered a modernized Public Service Health Care Plan (PSHCP) with meaningful enhancements across nearly every benefit category.

We will continue to challenge and contest all that puts our members and their pensions at risk. The more members we have, the stronger our influence will be.

How can I save money with a Federal Retirees membership?

Your Federal Retirees membership will instantly give you access to a variety of preferred partners offering exclusive savings on products and services related to health, travel, finance, technology, and home and auto insurance.

For travelers, MEDOC travel insurance is a must see. This group plan is the only one in Canada specifically designed for federal employees and retirees. It works hand in hand with your Public Service Health Care Plan benefits, and with more than 67,000 policy holders, you can take advantage of incredible coverage at unbelievable prices that are head and shoulders above standard market rates.

What do I need to do to join?

If you are paying into or receiving a federal pension, which would include members of the Canadian Armed Forces, the RCMP, the federal public service and retired federally appointed judges, or are a partner or survivor of someone mentioned above, you are eligible to join.

It's never been a better time to join

An annual single membership costs only $57.24 or just $74.40 per couple. You can request a direct deduction at source from your monthly pension (DDS) or choose to pay by credit card or cheque.

Take advantage of a one-time 25 per cent discount off annual membership fees by selecting the DDS payment method*.

*Unfortunately, this option is not available for current employees or those in receipt of judges' pensions or judges' survivor allowances.

"I think your provision of the many services is great and the variety is wonderful. I have accessed many."

"Imagine my surprise when I phoned and an actual person answered the phone. It was such a pleasant surprise not to have to press several buttons to talk to someone."
